When a mistake or problem is solved, the grievance ceases to exist and will not be continued to another step.

Step 1-Superintendent of Schools

Within ten (10) school days after the occurrence, or knowledge of the act or condition which is the basis of the complaint, the written grievance shall be presented to the Superintendent.

The Superintendent shall, within five (5) workdays after this meeting, render his decision, in writing, to the aggrieved party.

If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance in Step 1, it may be appealed to the Board of Trustees within five (5) workdays. The Board shall consider the grievance at its next regular meeting. The Board shall, within five (5) workdays after this meeting, render its decision, in writing, to the aggrieved party.

By mutual agreement, the District Court Judge for Esmeralda County may be asked to serve as arbitrator. The Judge shall conduct a hearing within thirty (30) days of the appeal to arbitration and render a decision that shall be final and binding on the parties.

Should the parties not agree to use the District Court Judge, either party may request from the American Arbitration a list of seven (7) arbitrators. Nothing contained in this article shall preclude an employee or the Organization, with or without representation, from bringing a problem through the chain of command to the Trustees on an informal and oral basis, nor shall such action waive any employees' right or the rights of the Organization.

1. At least one Organization representative will be present for any meeting, hearing, appeal, or other proceeding relating to a grievance.
2. If a grievance affects a group of employees of the Organization, the Organization may initiate and submit such grievance in writing to the Superintendent. The Organization may process such grievance through all levels of the procedure, even though there is no individual aggrieved person who wishes to.
3. When it is necessary for the Organization to investigate a formal grievance or to attend a meeting or hearing held in connection therewith, upon request to the immediate supervisor, the grievant and one (1) Organization representative will be released from normal duties, without the loss of pay, in order to do so.

6-7 No Reprisals

No reprisals of any kind will be taken by the Trustees or the administration against any employee because of participation in this grievance procedure.

6-8 Cooperation of Employer and Organization

The parties shall cooperate in the investigation of any grievance, and both parties will furnish such relevant information as is requested for the processing of any grievance.

6-9 Personnel Files

All documents, communications, and records dealing with the processing of a grievance will be filed separately from the personnel files of the participants.

6-10 Time Lines: Time lines between steps may be extended by mutual agreement.

6-11 Following Grievance Steps: If a grievant or Association skips a step or timeline in the grievance process, the grievance is waved. If the District misses a time line or skips a step, the grievance is made whole.

7-7 Any observation that results in a negative written evaluation or direction for change shall be called to the employee's attention in writing within ten days after the observation. The employee will be allowed five work days to review and/or discuss their written evaluation with their supervisor prior to signing the evaluation.

7-8 Whenever an employee is called before an administrator or the Board concerning any matter which may have an adverse effect on continuation in position or employment, the employee shall receive prior written notice of the reasons for such meeting and shall be entitled to have a representative of the Organization present for advice and representation during such meeting.
