17.3.1 (a) Administrators that voluntarily resign their position with the District shall be first reduced from the work force. (b) Satisfactory performance evaluations from the past three consecutive school years. (c) Seniority as defined in 17.4 of this Agreement.

17.3.2 An administrator whose position is eliminated as a result of a reduction in force shall be offered any equivalent administrative position where a vacancy occurs. For purposes of this Article, an equivalent administrative position is one that is comparable to the position currently held by the administrator; that is, a principal will be offered a principalship; an assistant principal will be offered an assistant principalship.

17.3.3 If no administrator voluntarily resigns and/or no other equivalent administrative vacancy is available, then the administrator that is subject to a reduction in force will have the right to bump the least senior administrator in his or her administrative category, i.e., principal or assistant principal. A more senior principal shall have the right to bump the least senior principal and a more senior assistant principal shall have the right to bump the least senior assistant principal.

For purposes of determining seniority, District office administrative experience, including the Superintendency, Deputy Superintendency, associate Superintendency, and Directorships, shall be counted the same as experience in the principalship.

17.4.2 In the event that two or more administrators are affected by a reduction in force and these administrators have the same total years of administrative experience in their current assignment, the administrator with the greatest overall administrative experience in the District shall be considered the most senior administrator as determined by board hire date.

17.4.3 In the event that either of the criteria in 17.4.1 or 17.4.2 fail to distinguish the most senior administrator, i.e., they have the same total years of experience in their current assignment and the same total years of administrative experience in the District, a lottery will be used to determine the most senior administrator.

- 17.5 A principal assigned to an assistant principalship as a result of a reduction in force shall retain the salary he or she had prior to the reduction in force for the period of one academic year. A principal or assistant principal assigned to a teaching position as a result of a reduction in force shall retain the salary he or she had prior to the reduction in force for the period of two academic years.
- 17.6 A principal or assistant principal assigned to a teaching position as a result of a reduction in force shall retain the administrative seniority he or she had at the time the reduction in force occurred for as long as he or she continues to teach in the District.

If no equivalent position is available, then the most senior principal affected by the reduction shall be offered the first available assistant principalship, pending availability of a vacant principalship. In no case shall an assistant principal be offered a principalship upon recall, although he or she may apply for a principalship in the District if there are no principals awaiting recall.
- 17.8 Until an administrator is placed in a position equivalent to the one he or she held prior to the reduction, he or she shall continue to have the right of recall for up to two (2) academic years from the time the administrator was subject to the reduction in force. The right of recall for administrators that have become subject to a reduction in force, including the right of notice outlined in 17.9 shall continue for a period of two years from the effective date of the reduction/layoff. If, however, within the two-year period, an administrator refuses a District position for which he or she is licensed and qualified, the administrator's recall rights, administrative salary, and all other administrative rights shall be forfeited. Any vacant site administrative position in the District must first be offered to administrators awaiting recall before opening the position to other administrative applicants.
- 17.9 The District shall notify affected administrators and the LCAA leadership, to the last known contact information, of the availability of administrative positions in the District. The administrator who has been notified shall have 2 days to notify the District with his or her acceptance or rejection of the offer. If the administrator accepts the position, he or she shall have 20 days to return to work, or the offer will be withdrawn.
- 17.10 New administrators assigned to temporary positions, such as one-year only (or other time-limited positions) or grant or bond funded positions will not be eligible for the protections of this Article in the event of a reduction in force until he or she has at least five (5) years of continuous employment with the District. If no such grievance is filed, the District shall immediately impose the suspension. This method of challenging any proposed suspension shall be in lieu of any other challenge, including but not limited to any challenge under NRS 391.314 or NRS 391.317.
- 18-4 An administrator is entitled to representation when meeting with his/her supervisor or designee on job related matters that may result in disciplinary action. Representation for the employee and the District shall be purposeful to the resolution of issues.
