

1 Regardless of what transpired between the parties, it now appears that this matter will not
2 proceed to arbitration until at least March of 2011, although the parties did not state that a March
3 2011 date had actually been scheduled with the arbitrator. An arbitration that occurs 17 months
4 after our order to stay the matter is unusual, as well a matter of concern to the Board.

6 While we do not grant the Complainant's motion outright, we hereby modify our prior
7 order that imposed a stay in this case until the Complainant had exhausted her contractual
8 remedies. We hereby order that the proceedings in this case shall be stayed only until September 9 20, 2010, and the stay which we have imposed will expire at that time.
10

11 We also hereby order the parties to submit a joint progress report to the Board no later
12 than September 20, 2010 which shall list the specific dates that have been agreed upon and 13 scheduled with the arbitrator. We will then reconsider whether or not to hear this case at our 14 next Board meeting following the expiration of the stay.
