PUBLIC SAFETY; STEVE SISOLAK, in his capacity as Governor of the State of Nevada,

Respondents.

Case No. 2020-015

ORDER ON RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION AND DISMISSAL

EN BANC

ITEM NO. 866

On June 24, 2020, this matter came before the State of Nevada, Government Employee-Management Relations Board ("Board") for consideration and decision pursuant to the provisions of NRS Chapter 288, the Government Employee-Management Relations Act ("EMRA"); NAC Chapter 288 and NRS Chapter 233B.

At issue was Respondent's, Nevada Department of Public Safety (DPS), Motion for Preliminary Determination and Dismissal Pursuant to NRS 288.625(2)(a). Respondent argues the Complaint is flawed as it characterizes Respondent as a local government employer as defined under NRS 288.060 and is founded upon statutes that govern local government employers, not the Executive Department. Respondent further contends that Complainant's notice of intent was improper and failed to satisfy the timelines imposed in NRS 288.565(2). Finally, Respondent argues that DPS has not interfered, restrained, coerced, made threats or retaliated against Complainant. In Opposition, Complainant concedes that it incorrectly identified DPS as a local government employer.

At this stage, the Board will grant the motion to dismiss in order for Complainant to cure the defects therein including its concession that it incorrectly identified DPU as well as basing its Complaint on provisions related thereto. The Board does not prohibit the filing of an additional motion

1 to dismiss thereafter, for example pursuant to NAC 288.375, and reserves judgment on remaining 2 issues.

3 NPU brought its motion pursuant to NRS 288.625(2)(a) and NAC 288.240(3) (general motion
4 practice before this Board). The Board however notes that it does not elect to use its discretion to 5 conduct a preliminary investigation of the complaint pursuant to NRS 288.625(2) as the following
6 provisions do not warrant such. Section 5 of the recent regulatory changes of the Board (LCB File No.
7 R056.19)<sup>1</sup> provides:

8 In determining whether to conduct a preliminary investigation of a complaint pursuant to 9 section 27 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3733
(NRS 288.625), the Board will consider:

10 (a) Whether the complainant or petitioner is represented by counsel;

11 (b) Whether the complainant or petitioner has conducted an investigation of the complaint or similar complaints;

12 (c) The number of persons affected by the alleged violation; and

13 (d) The amount of time and resources necessary to conduct the investigation.

14 2. In conducting a preliminary investigation pursuant to section 27 of Senate Bill No.
135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3733 (NRS 288.625), the Board or Commissioner may:

15 (a) Interview the complainant or petitioner or any witnesses.

16 (b) Request the complainant or petitioner or any witness to provide records to the Board or Commissioner. A person shall provide any requested records to the Board or Commissioner, as applicable, not later than 30 days after the date on which the request was received by the person.

17
18 Here, both parties are represented by counsel, complainant has not requested an investigation, 19 and the amount of time and resources necessary to conduct the investigation do not warrant the use of 20 the Board's discretionary authority.

26 <sup>1</sup> This regulation was adopted on December 30, 2019; however, the LCB has yet to officially codify the 27 recent regulatory changes. Section 5 prescribes certain requirements governing preliminary 28 investigations. In adopting this regulation, it was noted that the Board has never conducted investigations in its history, instead acts as an impartial court, and this provision was intended to be useful when a pro se client files a complaint with the Board. Minutes of the Workshop to Solicit Comments for New Regulations or Changes to Existing Regulations of the EMRB (July 17, 2019).

1 IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss the Complaint is GRANTED
2 without prejudice and with leave to amend.

3 Dated this ___ day of June 2020.
