A grievance is a disagreement between an individual, or the Association, and the employer concerning interpretation, application, or enforcement of the terms of this agreement.

3-2

For the purpose of this article, a "school day" is defined as any calendar day that the school offices are open for business.

3-3

If a grievance exists, the following steps shall be taken to resolve the grievance:

The parties acknowledge that it is usually most desirable for an administrator and the immediately involved supervisor to resolve problems through free and informal communications. Accordingly, any grievance may first be discussed with the aggrieved party's supervisor, with the objective of resolving the matter informally.

Step l

Superintendent of Schools

Within ten (10) school days after the occurrence, or of knowledge of the act or condition which is the basis of the complaint, the written grievance may be presented to the aggrieved party's Superintendent.

The Superintendent will answer the grievance, in writing, within (5) school days.

Step 2

Board of School Trustees

If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the disposition of its grievance at step l, the party may file the written grievance with the School Board within (5) school days.

The Board or their designee will meet with the aggrieved party and/or immediate appropriate supervisor in an effort to resolve the grievance. Such a meeting will take place within five (5) school days after receipt of the grievance by the School Board. The School Board shall, within five (5) school days after this meeting render its decision, in writing, to the aggrieved party.

Step 3

Binding Arbitration

If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance in Step 2, then the aggrieved party may present the grievance to binding arbitration within five (5) school days after the Trustees respond.

The arbitrator will be selected in the same manner as outlined in Step 3.

If both parties agree, the Expedited/Streamlined Arbitration format will be used at this level.

The arbitrator will consider the grievance and render a decision which will be final and binding upon the parties.

3-4

Arbitration Costs

The costs of all arbitration shall be borne as follows:

a. The expenses, wages, and other compensations of any witness called before the arbitrator shall be borne by the party calling such witness. Other expenses incurred, such as professional services, consultations, preparation of briefs and data to be presented to the arbitrator shall be borne separately by the respective parties.

b. The Arbitrator's fees and expenses, and the cost of any hearing room shall be borne by the losing party to the arbitration. The arbitrator shall determine the losing party. In the event of a split decision the arbitrator shall determine the portion of the total cost to be borne by each party.

Individual Rights

Nothing contained in this article shall preclude an employee or the Association, with or without representation, from bringing a problem through the chain of command to the Trustees on an informal and oral basis.

Rights to Representation

I. At least one Association representative will be present for any meeting, hearing, appeal, or other proceeding relating to a grievance which has been presented under this article

2. If, in the judgment of the Association, a grievance affects a group of teachers or the Association, the Association may initiate and submit such grievance in writing to the Superintendent directly, and the processing of such grievance will be commenced at Step 2. The Association may process such grievance through all levels of the procedure, even though there is no individual aggrieved person who wishes to do so. Grievances involving administration above the building level may be filed by the Association at Step 2.

3. When it is necessary for the Association to investigate a formal grievance or to attend a meeting or hearing held in connection therewith, upon request to the immediate supervisor, the grievant and one (I) Association representative will be released from normal duties, without loss of pay, in order to do so.

CORRECTIVE DISCIPLINE AND TERMINATION

10-1

Corrective Discipline

Corrective and disciplinary action is designed to provide a fair and structured way for employees to improve their job performances and/or behaviors which do not meet the standards or demands of their positions, and to provide a system for fair and equitable treatment of all employees.

1. The District will, through a corrective discipline system, give employees an opportunity to improve their job performances and/or behaviors which do not meet the standards or demands of their positions. The goal of the corrective discipline system is to correct or improve unsatisfactory performance/behavior, and the measures utilized will be commensurate with the deficiency to be corrected.

2. If disciplinary action is deemed necessary, the following steps will be taken:

a. Verbal Warning/Reprimand-A verbal warning or reprimand is given to the employee for the first occurrence of a minor offense. A warning is administered by the employee's immediate supervisor.

b. Written/reprimand - A written or formal warning is given to the employee in the first instance for more serious offenses or after repeated instances of minor offenses. The warning is administered by the employee's immediate supervisor. It states the nature of the offense and specifies any future disciplinary action which will be taken against the employee if the offense is repeated within a specified time limit. A copy of the written warning is placed in the employee's personal file, but it is destroyed twelve (12) months following the date on which it was given if the intervening service has been satisfactory. The employee is required to read and sign the formal warning.

c. Suspension Without Pay - If, despite previous warnings, an employee still fails to reach the required standards in the specified time frame, the employee may be suspended without pay. Under suspension, the employee is barred from working for a period of time, and his/her salary is docked accordingly. Suspension without pay actions could range from one (1) to twenty (20) days.

An employee may also be placed on suspension without pay pending discharge. A decision to suspend pending discharge is made based on the reasons for the discharge, and is generally utilized when the employee is suspected of gross misconduct, or when his/her continued presence during the investigation period would be a disruption to normal district business.

d. Dismissal-An employee who fails to correct unsatisfactory performance/behavior during previous steps in the progressive discipline procedure will be terminated.

Termination

1. Resignation - An employee who resigns shall submit his/her resignation in writing to the District and give at least two (2) weeks-notice.

2. The Association agrees that in the event any employee resigns on or after July 1, but before September 30th of the year in which the contract is tendered for the ensuing contract year that should Lincoln County School District suffer a financial burden of at least five percent of the base salary of the adopted administrators' salary schedule in locating a replacement employee that said employee shall pay Lincoln County School District five percent of the base salary of the adopted administrators' salary schedule as liquidated damages in the event the employee resigns on or after July 1 of the year in which the contract is tendered for the ensuing contract year. This provision may be waived if mutually agreed by the employee and the District.

3. Probationary Employee Termination - If, during the probationary period, an employee's performance or conduct is not overall satisfactory or he/she fails to qualify medically for reasons that render such person unqualified for the position, the employee may be terminated.

Every probationary administrator being terminated will be entitled to the following:

a. The administrator will be notified in writing before the 15th day of April. This notification will include a written statement declaring, clearly and explicitly, the specific reason(s) for the termination of his/her services.

b. The administrator may, within ten (10) days of the receipt of the statement of reasons, appeal the termination through the grievance procedure.

4. Post-probationary Employee Termination

A post-probationary employee may be terminated or subject to disciplinary action in accordance with NRS 391.750.

In determining whether the professional performance of a certificated employee is inadequate, consideration shall be given to the regular and special evaluation reports prepared in accordance with the District Policy.

5. Consideration Before Termination

Prior to termination, excluding termination pursuant to sections 3, 6, and 7 of this article, an employee shall be given a warning and a reasonable time to rectify the problem. This warning will include:

a. A precise definition of the problem in terms of professional deficiency
b. A precise set of expectations delineating what level of performance would constitute acceptable performance in the problem areas defined
c. A prescription for remediation which spells out courses of action and time-expectations so the administrator involved can reach an acceptable level of performance
d. A prescription for assistance by the immediate supervisor which spells out courses of action and time lines whereby the administrator will be assisted and counseled in improving the level of performance to an acceptable level.

According to the gravity of the offense, employee discipline short of termination may consist of oral warning, written reprimand, or suspension.

Any incident or situation that arises during the current school year that could possibly be cited as a reason for termination will be discussed promptly with the administrator.

The District reserves the right, as a form of discipline, to place an employee on probation for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days in an effort to further evaluate and rehabilitate the employee.

An employee may be terminated without prior written notice warning, or admonition in accordance with NRS 391.755(4)

Whenever the superintendent has reason to believe that cause exists for the dismissal of a certificated employee and when he/she is of the opinion that the immediate suspension of the employee is necessary in the best interests of the children in the district, the superintendent may suspend the employee without notice and without a hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 391.312, a superintendent may suspend a certificated employee who has been officially charged but not yet convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or immorality. If the charge is dismissed or if the employee is found not guilty, he must be reinstated with back pay, plus interest, and normal seniority. The superintendent shall notify the employee in writing of the suspension.

6. Abandonment of Work

An employee absent from work in excess of three (3) days without a satisfactory explanation shall be considered to have abandoned his/her job and shall be terminated.

10-3

Just Cause:
No post-probationary employee shall be disciplined, suspended, dismissed, non-renewed, or terminated without just cause. Probationary employees retain all rights under NRS Chapter 391.

ARTICLE XI

SAFETY AND HEALTH

11-1

An employee, believing any working condition is unsafe, shall immediately notify his/her immediate supervisor.

11-2

Should the supervisor conclude that the working condition is safe, and the employee insists to the contrary, the employee shall continue to work until the matter can be resolved between the District and the Association through the grievance procedure.

Should the employee conclude that the working condition is unsafe and refuse to continue to work, if it is concluded during the grievance procedure that the working condition is safe, the employee may be subject to disciplinary action.

The administrator shall sign the personnel file copy of the report, comment, or reprimand as acknowledgment of receipt of a copy of the document. Such signature shall not be construed as agreement to the contents of the document.

Any written response by the administrator to any written report, comment, or reprimand shall also become a part of the administrator's personnel file and shall remain a part of said file as long as the report, comment, or reprimand responded to remains a part of the file.
