The filling of the position will not affect the leave or seniority of the employee.

Employees transferring to a position that is of lower salary range whether it be within a classification family or outside their classification family, shall be placed on the salary step of the new position based on years of service.

- E. District-classified employees have the right to transfer within the same classification before any vacancy can be offered outside the District.
- F. The district may post the vacancy concurrently in house and to the general public. If, however, a classified employee applies and is qualified, the process stops there.

However, refusal of a comparable permanent position shall result in removal from the re-employment priority list.
6. Any resignation or termination of employment shall constitute a "break" in seniority, unless the termination was a result of a reduction in force, in which case, the employee will be allowed to keep his/her reduction in force eligibility, and seniority date.
7. Leaves of absence without pay shall not change the employee's seniority date, but shall not count toward seniority.
8. All other conditions being equal, the seniority shall prevail as the determining factor for purposes of reductions in force and first right to rehire.
9. Any employee reduced in regular assigned time may exercise his/her "bumping rights". If the employee accepts reduction voluntarily, there is no need to exercise "bumping rights".

10. An employee will first “bump” within his/her current family classification. 1. Post-probationary employees who are suspended without pay, who are demoted or discharged as a disciplinary measure, may appeal such action through the grievance procedure.
2. In the event the appeal reaches Level Four (arbitration), the sole issue upon which the arbitrator is to render an opinion shall be whether or not there was just cause for the District to take the specific disciplinary action. The arbitrator can only affirm or reverse the disciplinary action.
3. The provisions of this article shall not be available to probationary employees.
 - a) The probationary period of an individual employee may be extended by the Superintendent or designee.

- b) A probationary employee may request, in writing, to his/her supervisor that the Superintendent reduce the probationary period.
- C. The continued employment of a worker is dependent upon satisfactory performance of assigned duties. Should an employee's work habits, overall attitude, adherence to rules, conduct, or demeanor become unsatisfactory, the supervisor will first attempt to counsel and assist the employee in identifying and remediating those behavioral and/or performance problems.
- D. WRITTEN WARNING - A written warning will be placed in the personnel file stating that the employee had received previous counsel from the supervisor regarding unacceptable behavior and/or performance, that the counseling has been unsuccessful, and that should the unacceptable behavior and/or performance continue, more stringent disciplinary action will follow.
- E. SUSPENSION - A written notification outlining the previous efforts in remediating the unacceptable behavior and/or performance with a recommendation to suspend without pay subject to review by the Superintendent. Prior to suspension, a meeting will be held including the employee, supervisor, Superintendent and a union representative of the employee's choice.
- F. SUBSEQUENT OFFENSES - Should the employee continue to violate, disregard, or show indifferent to acceptable behavioral and/or performance standards, the supervisor may recommend termination subject to review by the Superintendent.

- B. The process of evaluation focuses on, but is not limited to, the performance of each classified employee. It correlates with the job description in District policy and focuses on the important components of effective performance.
- C. Evaluation is an individualized process and therefore, each classified employee must be evaluated on his/her specific strengths and needs. The Board and Association believe that the evaluation system should improve job performance rather than be merely judgmental; therefore, the evaluators of the classified employee's performance are expected to have adequate training and expertise in the process of supervision and evaluation.
- D. The District will maintain complete documentation of all evaluation activities. Timely written documentation is instrumental to an effective evaluation system. This documentation is designed to allow for a continual record of performance and will provide the opportunity for classified employees to dissent from the evaluator's evaluation as provided in ARTICLE IV.

During the 2025 legislative session, Senate Bill 500 (SB 500) was enacted, which extended the SB 231 funding for an additional two years through the 2025–2027 biennium.

Due to the temporary nature of this funding and the current lack of guarantees beyond the 2025–2027 biennium, these associated increases to salary and benefits shall remain in effect only through June 30, 2027. These increases shall sunset effective July 1, 2027, unless further extended or made permanent by future action of the Nevada Legislature.

F. Step Increases and Salary Schedule Changes

- Current Practice: Under the existing salary schedule, employees do not receive step increases on odd-numbered years after reaching Step 10. The schedule continues up to Step 25, but post-Step 10 increases occur only every other year.
- Future Adjustment: Beginning with the effective date of this agreement (September 1, 2025), classified employees will receive a step increase every year after Step 10. However, the salary schedule will be capped at Step 17.
