Article XIV REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

The Employer and the Union will comply with all relevant federal and state laws, regulations, and executive orders providing reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities.

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act of 2009 (ADAAA) are civil rights acts prohibiting discrimination against individuals with disabilities in employment, public services, transportation, public accommodations, and telecommunications. These acts provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination.

Under the ADA, employment decisions must be based on an employee's ability to perform the essential functions of their position with or without reasonable accommodation. "Reasonable accommodation" means any change or adjustment to a job or work environment that permits a qualified employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of a job, or enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment equal to those enjoyed without disabilities, without creating an undue hardship on the Employer.

An employee who believes that they have a disability and require a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of their position or access the benefits and privileges of employment may request such an accommodation by submitting a request to their Departmental or Divisional Human Resources Office or their Departmental or Divisional ADA Coordinator. The Departmental or Divisional Human Resources Office or ADA Coordinator will acknowledge receipt of the request for reasonable accommodation and will begin the interactive process as defined in the ADA and the ADAAA with the employee as soon as practicable, but not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the request for accommodation.

An employee requesting accommodation must cooperate with their Departmental or Divisional Human Resources Office or ADA Coordinator in discussing the need for and possible form of any accommodation and may be asked to provide further relevant medical documentation. The Departmental or Divisional Human Resources Office or ADA Coordinator may request that the employee obtain an independent medical examination (IME), at the Employer's expense, if any medical documentation is insufficient or if an accommodation opportunity has been identified for which the employee may qualify.

All medical information disclosed to the Employer will be kept confidential.

In the event the Departmental or Divisional Human Resources Office or ADA Coordinator has identified that all possible reasonable accommodation avenues have been exhausted within the Department or Division, as well as Employer-wide, the employee may be separated from service, or if eligible, offered the opportunity to exercise their right to a Disability Retirement with the Public Employees' Retirement System of Nevada (PERS), as outlined in Article XVIII, Separation from Service.

Article XV DISCIPLINE

The purpose of this Article is to provide for an equitable and expeditious manner in the application of disciplinary action. The Appointing Authority, or designee, will not discipline any employee without just cause. Discipline is supported by just cause when it is not for any arbitrary, capricious, or illegal reason, based upon facts supported by substantial evidence and reasonably believed by the Employer to be factual and consistent with the Progressive Discipline model below.

The Appointing Authority, or designee, will evaluate or investigate each incident that is subject to discipline on a case-by-case basis pursuant to this Agreement and Department or Division-specific Prohibitions & Penalties, Administrative Regulations, Standing Orders, directives, and policies.

At the conclusion of an evaluation or investigation, the Appointing Authority, or designee, will determine the appropriate disciplinary action to be applied, if any, to correct the employee's conduct in accordance with a progressive disciplinary model.

An employee shall not be disciplined for refusing to sign a disciplinary document. The supervisor will simply note "employee refused to sign;" however, refusal to acknowledge or sign a disciplinary document does not negate the disciplinary action.

A. Progressive Discipline

The Employer and the Union agree that, except in cases of serious violations of law, regulations, or policy, a progressive disciplinary model will be used for discipline of bargaining unit employees, which requires less severe measures being applied first, followed by progressively more severe measures if the employee's conduct or performance deficits continue, subject to the provisions below.

Disciplinary action may be issued for, but is not limited to, the following:

- a. Any act of commission and/or omission that constitutes misconduct.
- b. Any activity that is incompatible with an employee's conditions of employment
- c. codified by statute, regulation, standard, or Employer policy.
- d. Any violation of federal or state law, Department or Division policy, rule,
- e. regulations, procedure, directive, or standing order, grant requirement, or
- f. agreement.
- g. Failure of an employee to abide by the standards of ethical conduct that is identified in state law or Department or Division policy.

Progressive disciplinary action includes the following, in order of severity:

Oral Warning

When instruction and training have not resulted in the change in behavior or performance that is desired, an Oral Warning is typically the first level in the progressive disciplinary process.

An Oral Warning is documentation, confirmed in writing, that behavior or performance is inappropriate, and the employee was notified. A copy of the Oral Warning will be filed in the Supervisor File if one is maintained. This level of discipline may be skipped when the seriousness of the employee's behavior and/or performance warrants a higher level of discipline on a first offense.

An employee may provide written comment to the Oral Warning and may request a review meeting with their supervisor or manager.

An employee may grieve an Oral Warning by filing a grievance under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure.

Written Reprimand

Typically, the second level in the disciplinary process, a Written Reprimand is used when previous corrective and disciplinary action has not produced the appropriate change in behavior or performance or when the seriousness of a first offense warrants a higher level of discipline. This level of discipline may be skipped when the seriousness of the employee's behavior and/or performance warrants a higher level of discipline on a first offense.

Written Reprimands will be issued using the NPD-52 Written Reprimand form.

A copy of the executed, signed and/or acknowledged Written Reprimand will be provided to the employee and will be placed in the Supervisor File, the employee's Departmental or Divisional Personnel File, and will be forwarded to the appropriate Central Records Unit. An employee may grieve a Written Reprimand by filing a grievance under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure.

Suspension from Duty Without Pay

When previous corrective and disciplinary action have not produced the appropriate change in behavior or performance or due to the seriousness of a first offense, a suspension from duty without pay may be used as a form of discipline. This level of discipline may be skipped when the seriousness of the employee's behavior and/or performance warrants a higher level of discipline on a first offense.

A suspension from duty without pay will be issued using the HR-41 Specificity of Charges form.

A suspension from duty without pay will not exceed thirty (30) calendar days.

A copy of the executed, signed and/or acknowledged HR-41 Specificity of Charges form will be provided for the employee and will be placed in the Supervisor File, the employee's Departmental or Divisional Personnel File, and will be forwarded to the appropriate Central Records Unit.

Suspension from duty without pay may either be grieved under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure or appealed in accordance with NRS 284.390. Once an employee has properly filed a grievance under either Article XVI, Grievance Procedure, or an appeal under NRS 284.390, they may not proceed in the alternative manner. A grievance of a suspension from duty without pay will begin at Step 4 under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure.

Demotion

Demotion occurs after other forms of discipline have not produced the appropriate change in behavior or when the employee's behavior is particularly egregious, a demotion to a lower class may be used as a form of discipline. This level of discipline may be skipped when the seriousness of the employee's behavior and/or performance warrants a higher level of discipline on a first offense. A demotion will be issued using the HR-41 Specificity of Charges form. A copy of the executed, signed and/or acknowledged HR-41 Specificity of Charges form will be provided for the employee and will be placed in the Supervisor File, the employee's Departmental or Divisional Personnel File, and will be forwarded to the appropriate Central Records Unit.

Demotion may either be grieved under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure or appealed in accordance with NRS 284.390. Once an employee has properly filed a grievance under either Article XVI, Grievance Procedure, or an appeal under NRS 284.390, they may not proceed in the alternative manner. A grievance of a demotion will begin at Step 4 under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure.

Dismissal from Service

Dismissal from service occurs after other forms of discipline have not produced the appropriate change in behavior or the employee's behavior is particularly egregious. A dismissal from State service will be issued using the HR-41 Specificity of Charges form. A copy of the executed, signed and/or acknowledged HR-41 Specificity of Charges form will be provided to the employee and will be placed in the Supervisor File and the employee's Departmental or Divisional Personnel File, and will be forwarded to the appropriate Central Records Unit. Dismissal from service may either be grieved under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure or appealed in accordance with NRS 284.390. Once an employee has properly filed a grievance under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure, or an appeal under NRS 284.390, they may not proceed in the alternative manner.

A grievance of a dismissal from service will begin at Step 4 under Article XVI, Grievance Procedure.

B. Investigations

The Appointing Authority, or designee, has the authority to conduct internal administrative investigations into employee conduct that could lead to disciplinary action. The Appointing Authority, or designee, also has the authority to determine the method of conducting those investigations and will ensure that the method is fair and impartial. An employee who is the subject of an internal administrative investigation will receive a completed copy of the HR-32 Notice of Employee Rights During an Internal Investigation within thirty (30) calendar days of the Appointing Authority, or designee, becoming aware, or reasonably should have become aware, of the conduct that led to the investigation of an allegation against the employee.

The notice provided to the employee who is the subject of the investigation must include:

- a. A summary of alleged misconduct of the employee;
- b. The date, time, and place of the interview or hearing;
- c. The name of the person(s) who will conduct any interview or hearing;
- d. The name of any other person who will be present at any interview or hearing; and
- e. A statement that the employee has the right to have a lawyer or other representative of their choosing present with them at any time that they are questioned regarding those allegations, and that the employee must be given not less than two (2) business days to obtain such representation, unless they waive their right to be represented.

An internal administrative investigation that could lead to disciplinary action against an employee and any determination made as a result of such an investigation must be completed and the employee notified with a disciplinary document within ninety (90) calendar days after the employee is provided notice of the allegations. If the Appointing Authority, or designee, cannot complete the investigation and make a determination within ninety (90) calendar days, the Appointing Authority, or designee, may request an extension of not more than sixty (60) calendar days from the DHRM Administrator. The DHRM Administrator may approve an extension only once, except in cases where the Appointing Authority, or designee, can demonstrate a pattern of dilatory behavior on the part of the employee being investigated and/or their representative. The DHRM Administrator's decision to grant or deny an extension of time is not subject to grievance or review. Any further extensions must be granted by the Governor. If the Appointing Authority, or designee, violates this provision Employer shall not take any disciplinary action against the employee based on those allegations.

At the conclusion of any investigation, the Appointing Authority, or designee, will determine whether the employee committed misconduct, whether disciplinary action is appropriate, and what level of discipline to impose. In determining the level of discipline to impose, the Appointing Authority, or designee, must consider progressive discipline and the seriousness of the offense.

If the Appointing Authority, or designee, elects not to take disciplinary action, or if allegations related to an investigation do not result in disciplinary action, the employee will be provided with a notice that any investigation is complete and that no disciplinary action will be imposed. The employee shall not be entitled access to the file of the disciplinary investigation unless disciplinary action was imposed.

C. Pre-Disciplinary Review

If, following an investigation, an Appointing Authority, or designee, proposes that a permanent employee be dismissed, suspended, or demoted, the following procedure for a Pre-Disciplinary Review before the proposed action must be followed: A Pre-Disciplinary Review must be scheduled on the employee's behalf unless waived in writing by the employee pursuant to Subsection 2. The Pre-Disciplinary Review must be scheduled to take place not earlier than seven (7) working days after the HR-41 is delivered to the employee. The Pre-Disciplinary Review must not be scheduled on a day which is not a regular working day for the employee. If the Appointing Authority, or designee, and the employee agree, the date of the Pre-Disciplinary Review may be changed.

The employee may waive the right to a Pre-Disciplinary Review before the proposed action in writing. If the employee makes such a waiver, they may not be dismissed, suspended, or demoted before the proposed effective date set forth in the HR-41. The waiver does not waive the employee's right to file a grievance or appeal after the action is taken.

The Appointing Authority, or designee, shall conduct the Pre-Disciplinary Review. Any designated representative must be a person with the authority to recommend a final decision to the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority, or designee, shall render the final decision.

At any time after receiving the HR-41 and before the Pre-Disciplinary Review, the employee may inspect any evidence in the possession of the Department or Division and submit a response. The Department or Division must consider any such response before making a recommendation to impose punitive action against the employee.

The employee may request Administrative Leave with pay for up to eight (8) hours to prepare for a Pre-Disciplinary Review regarding a suspension, demotion, or dismissal.

This process is an informal proceeding between the Appointing Authority, or designee, and the employee and their representative(s), who meet together to discuss the proposed disciplinary action. The employee will be given an opportunity to rebut the allegations against them and provide mitigating information. Witnesses are not allowed to attend.

The employee may respond both orally and in writing at the Pre-Disciplinary Review.

The employee must be:

- a. Given a copy of the finding or recommendation, if any, resulting from the Pre-Disciplinary Review; and,
- b. Notified in writing of the Appointing Authority's, or designee's, decision regarding the proposed action on or before the effective date of the action. The effective date of the action is the first day the disciplinary action takes effect.

D. Confidentiality

Employees have the right to confidentiality related to disciplinary action to the extent provided/allowed by law. The Employer and the Union will take appropriate steps to maintain such confidentiality.

E. Off-Duty Conduct

The off-duty conduct of an employee covered under this Agreement may be grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to their Departmental or Divisional Prohibitions & Penalties, Administrative Regulations, Standing Orders, directives, and policies if there is a substantial nexus between the off-duty conduct and the employee's State employment.

If an employee covered under this Agreement has any required licenses suspended or revoked, or receives any citation while driving a State-owned vehicle, or is convicted of any offense that violates Department or Division security or background clearance, they will report such to their immediate supervisor within forty-eight (48) hours.

Article XVI GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. General Provisions

The Union and the Employer agree that it is in the best interest of all parties to resolve disputes at the earliest opportunity and at the lowest level. The Union and the Employer encourage problem resolution between employees and management and are committed to assisting in resolution of disputes as soon as possible. In the event a dispute is not resolved in an informal manner, this Article provides a formal process for dispute resolution.

"Grievance" means an act, omission, or occurrence that an employee covered by this Agreement or the Union believes to be an injustice relating to any condition arising out of the relationship between the Employer and an employee, including, but not limited to, compensation, working hours, working conditions, membership in the union, the administration and interpretation of this Agreement, the applicability of any law, rule or regulation relating to the employee's employment, imposition of discipline, or other adverse personnel actions. The term "grievance" does not include any dispute for which a hearing and/or remedy is provided by federal or state law through other administrative processes. For example, there are specific avenues outside of the grievance process to address the following:

- Allegations of discrimination or sexual harassment must be reported or otherwise addressed through the process outlined in Article --' Unlawful Discrimination. A change in classification or the allocation of positions (NRS 284.165).
- Refusal to examine or certify an applicant for an open position for the grounds specified in NRS 284.240 (NRS 284.245).
- A denial of Catastrophic Leave (NRS 284.3629).
- Reprisal or retaliatory action against a State officer or employee who discloses improper governmental action (NRS 281.641).

B. Filing & Processing a Grievance

Procedure

Except as otherwise provided in subsections band c below, the procedure to resolve grievances set forth in this Article is the exclusive means available for resolving grievances.

An employee in a bargaining unit who has been suspended, demoted, or dismissed may pursue a grievance related to that suspension, demotion, or dismissal through:

- a. The grievance procedure provided in this Article; or
- b. The procedure prescribed by NRS 284.390.

An employee who is aggrieved by the failure of the Employer to comply with the requirements of NRS 281.755 relating to the expression of breast milk by nursing mothers may pursue a grievance related to that failure through:

- b. The procedure prescribed by NRS 288.115.

Once the employee has filed a grievance in writing under the procedure describe in this Article, or has requested a hearing under NRS 284.390, or filed a complaint under NRS 288.115, the employee may not proceed in the alternative manner.

Unless the grievance pertains to a suspension, demotion, dismissal, or involuntary transfer, the grievance must be filed beginning at Step 1, below, with the employee(s) immediate supervisor and a courtesy copy sent to the DHRM LRU.

Grievances of suspensions, demotions, dismissals, or involuntary transfers will be filed beginning at Step 4, below, with a courtesy copy to the DHRM LRU.

No newly alleged violations may be submitted after the initial written grievance timeline has expired.

Consolidation of Grievances

The parties may mutually agree to consolidate grievances arising out of the same set of facts.

When Resolution of a Grievance Becomes Binding

The resolution of a grievance is binding when there is a written agreement between the grievant and the Appointing Authority, or designee, of the employing Department or Division.

C. Informal Resolution of a Grievance

General Provisions

The parties shall make every reasonable effort to resolve a grievance through informal discussions, including involving the LRU, if appropriate. If the Employer provides the requested remedy or a mutually agreed-upon alternative, a grievance will be considered resolved and may not be moved to the next step.

Mediation

Any time during grievance process Steps 1 through 3, by mutual written agreement between the grievant or Union and Employer, the parties may request a mediation session through the DHRM Employee Management Services Unit or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS), as selected by the grievant or Union, to resolve a grievance. During informal mediation, the timelines for grievances are suspended.

The proceedings of any mediation will not be recorded or reported in any manner, except for agreements that may be reached by the parties during the mediation.

Offers to resolve the grievance and statements made by or to the mediator, or by or to any party or other participant in the mediation are confidential and may not later be introduced as evidence, may not be made known to an Arbitrator at a hearing, or may not be construed for any purpose as an admission against interest, unless they are independently admissible.

If informal mediation does not result in a resolution, an employee or the Union may return to the grievance process laid out in this Article and the timelines resume.

D. Withdrawal of a Grievance

A grievance may be withdrawn by an employee or the Union at any time.

E. Grievance Levels

Any of the steps in this procedure may be bypassed by mutual written agreement among the grievant or Union and Employer.

Step 1 - Supervisor

A grievance shall be filed with the employee's immediate supervisor within twenty (20) calendar days of the underlying event or discovery of facts that constitute a grievance. The supervisor's response will be documented and sent to the grievant within fifteen (15) calendar days.

Step 2 - Division Administrator or Manager, or Designee

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1 and the grievant wishes to escalate the grievance to the next step, they may present the written grievance to their Division Administrator or Manager, or designee, with a courtesy copy to the DHRM LRU, within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Step 1 response.

The Division Administrator or Manager, or designee, will meet in person or confer by telephone or video with the grievant and the grievant's representative, if any, within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance and will issue a response in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days following that meeting or conference.

Step 3 - Department Head, or Designee

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2 and the grievant wishes to escalate the grievance to the next step, they may present the written grievance to their Department Head, or designee, with a courtesy copy to the DHRM LRU, within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Step 2 response.

The Department Head, or designee, will meet in person or confer by telephone or video with the grievant and the grievant's representative, if any, within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance and will issue a response in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days following that meeting or conference.

Step 4 - Arbitration

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3 eF-4 and the grievant wishes to escalate the grievance to the next step, they may file a demand for arbitration with either the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS), with a copy to the grievant's Department or Division and a courtesy copy to the DHRM LRU, within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the Step 3 decision.

Once a demand for arbitration is filed and the AAA or FMCS has supplied a list of seven (7) names of Arbitrators, the parties will select an Arbitrator by alternatively striking names until one name remains. The party striking first shall be determined by lot.

The parties agree that any arbitration proceedings will be conducted in accordance with the AAA or FMCS Rules of Labor Arbitration, unless otherwise agreed to in writing. The parties agree to provide a response to requests for relevant documents and witnesses within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt of the request.

The Arbitrator will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability, if any, through written briefs immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process, at the discretion of the Arbitrator. Although a decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.

When an employee is subpoenaed as a witness in an arbitration case, they may appear without the loss of pay if they appear during their work time, providing testimony given is related to their job function or involves matters they have witnessed and is relevant to the arbitration case.

The Arbitrator so selected shall confer promptly with the parties, shall hold further hearings, and shall issue a report not later than thirty (30) days from the day of the hearing, unless stipulated to by the parties or required differently by the Arbitrator, which shall set forth findings of fact, reasoning, and decisions on the issues submitted.

The Arbitrator shall not have the authority to modify, amend, alter, add to, or subtract from, any of the provisions of this Agreement.

The Arbitrator's decision shall be consistent with the law and the terms of this Agreement and shall be binding on the parties.

The expenses of arbitration, including the Arbitrator's fees/costs and the expenses and costs of the Arbitrator's transcript, if any, shall be borne equally by the parties. F. Attendance at Meetings

Meetings include informal grievance resolution meetings, grievance meetings, informal mediation sessions, and arbitration hearings shall be scheduled in accordance with this Article.

An employee will be allowed reasonable time, as determined by the Department or Division, to travel to and from the meetings referenced above. Time spent traveling during the employee's nonwork hours to attend meetings referenced above may, at the Department's or Division's discretion, be considered work time. An employee may be authorized by their supervisor to take Leave Without Pay (L WOP), Administrative Leave for up to eight (8) hours, Compensatory Time, or Annual Leave to prepare for and travel to and from grievance hearings or meetings.

An employee must provide at least two (2) working days' notice to their supervisor prior to requesting release from duty in accordance with this Article to attend a meeting, hearing, or mediation session. If two (2) working days' notice is not possible, then the supervisor must consider, but is not required to, approve release of duty for the meeting. A request must include the approximate amount of time the employee expects the meeting or hearing to take. As determined by the supervisor, any Department or Division business requiring the employee's immediate attention must be completed prior to attending the meeting or hearing. An employee cannot use a State vehicle to travel to and from a work site to attend a meeting unless authorized to do so by the Department or Division.

G. Successor Clause

Grievances filed during the term of this Agreement will be processed to completion in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

H. Timelines

The time limits in this Article must be strictly adhered to unless mutually modified in writing. As used herein, "days" refers to calendar days. When calculating a time period is stated in days, exclude the day of the event that triggers the period; then count every calendar day, including intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and include the last day of the period. If the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

I. Failure to Meet Timelines

Failure by the grievant to comply with the timelines in this Article will result in the automatic withdrawal of the grievance with prejudice.

Failure by the Employer to comply with the timelines will entitle the Union to move the grievance to the next step of the procedure.

Timelines may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

J. Grievance Files

Written grievances and responses will be maintained separately from the Personnel Files of the employees.

Article XVII LAYOFF & REEMPLOYMENT

A. Layoff

The Employer will determine the basis for, extend, and the effective date of any layoffs (also known as reductions in force) in accordance with NRS 288.150(3)(b), and other applicable provisions of State law and this Article.

This Article refers exclusively to employees in permanent full-time equivalent positions.

In the event of a layoff, employees will be laid off according to seniority within the job classifications being reduced, starting with the least senior employee. For the purposes of this Article, seniority commences on the date of hire and includes any break in service as defined in NAC 284.598.

Pursuant to NAC 284.614, employees given notice of layoff will be given the opportunity to transfer in lieu of layoff to any positions within their current job classification, and which they are more senior than the least senior employee, or to take a voluntary demotion to a vacant position in a job classification within their current class series and option, or within a job classification from which they were appointed to their current position within their Department or Division, or to be laid off.

Permanent, full-time employees who are laid off are eligible to remain on a reemployment list for two (2) years following the date of layoff. It is the responsibility of the laid off employee to keep all contact information up to date with the State.

B. Reemployment

No one shall be hired into a job classification that had layoffs until all eligible employees on the reemployment list have been given a reasonable opportunity to be reemployed.

Permanent full-time employees shall be offered reemployment in accordance with seniority at the time of layoff with the most senior laid off person to be offered reemployment first. Every eligible laid off employee will be afforded three (3) documented opportunities for rehire within the two (2) year eligibility period before being removed from the reemployment list.

An offer of reemployment to a laid off employee must be responded to within seven (7) calendar days from the time the offer is extended to accept or reject that offer. Failure to respond will be considered as a rejection of that specific offer but the laid off employee will still be eligible for any remaining future offers. This includes a laid off employee who cannot be contacted with the information on file at the time of a reemployment offer.

A laid off employee accepting an offer of reemployment must contact the Department or Division if they believe they require a delayed start date after reemployment.

Reemployed employees shall maintain their seniority from their original date of hire, if reemployed within the two (2) year eligibility period.

Article XVIII SEPARATION FROM SERVICE

A. Resignation

Unless the Employer and the employee agree to a shorter period of time, an employee who wishes to resign from State service will submit an NPD-45 Notice of Transfer or Resignation form to their Department or Division head, or designee, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the effective date of the resignation.

B. Disability Separation

Employees who have been separated from service due to a disability may be eligible for reinstatement if they have recovered from the condition which caused their disability and under which they were separated from service.

D. Disability Retirement

Employees with five (5) or more years of service and who have been certified by a treating physician that they are unable to perform the essential functions of their position due to disability may choose to exercise their right to retire from service under the Public Employees' Retirement System of Nevada (PERS) with a Disability Retirement. The PERS Disability Retirement benefit allows employees with a disability to retire without penalty prior to their projected service retirement date.

Employees who choose Disability Retirement must apply to PERS for their benefit before they separate from State service. Applications for Disability Retirement can be obtained at www.nvpers.org.

The purpose of the Committee is to facilitate improved labor-management relationships by providing a forum for the free discussion of either party's concerns and/or problems which may include discussions of the implementation of major new department/division programs or substantial modifications of existing major department/division programs that will have significant impact on work schedules or duties.

The Employer and the Union further agree to provide notice and meet or confer with one another, or through the Labor Management Committee if appropriate, prior to filing formal complaints with a judicial body, such as the EMRB or a Court.

The Employer reserves the right to restrict or rescind the access of a recognized Union Staff Representative if they are found to be behaving inappropriately, or in a manner that is disruptive to the business operations of the Employer and not in keeping with their responsibilities as a representative of the Union and a guest on the Employer's premises. Article XXII DISCLOSURE OF IMPROPER GOVERNMENTAL ACTIVITY

A. General Provisions

Nevada law specifically encourages any State officer or employee to disclose improper governmental action to the extent not prohibited by law. It is the intent of the Legislature to protect an employee's rights should they make such a disclosure. "Improper governmental action" means any action taken by a State officer or employee in the performance of the officer or employee's official duties, whether the action is within the scope of employment, which is:

- a. In violation of any state law or regulation; or,
- b. An abuse of authority; or,
- c. Of substantial and specific danger to the public health or safety; or,
- d. A gross waste of public money.

State officers and employees are prohibited by law from using their authority or influence to prevent an employee's disclosure of improper governmental action. "Official authority or influence" includes taking, directing others to take, recommending, processing, or approving any personnel action such as an appointment, promotion, transfer, assignment, reassignment, reinstatement, restoration, reemployment, evaluation, or other disciplinary action.

The Employer will take any disclosure of improper governmental action very seriously. If a disclosing employee feels that they have experienced any retaliatory action or reprisal because they have made such a disclosure, the employee must submit a claim of retaliatory action or reprisal on the PD-53 Appeal of "Whistleblower Retaliation form.

B. Fraud Hotline

The Fraud Hotline is an established hotline number that allows employees to report inappropriate use of State funds or federal funds received by the Employer by calling the Fraud Hotline at (775) 687-0150.

The Employer must post the Fraud Hotline number in conspicuous places in each public building of its Departments.

Article XXIII STRIKES & LOCKOUTS

Neither the Union nor any employee covered by this Agreement will promote, sponsor, or engage in any strike against the Employer, slow down, or interruption of operation, concentrated stoppage of work, absence from work upon any pretext or excuse such as illness, which is not founded in fact, or on any other intentional interruption of the operations of the State regardless of the reason for so doing.

The Employer will not lock out any employees during the term of this Agreement as a result of a dispute with the Union.

Article XXIV ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This document constitutes the entire Agreement negotiated by the parties in good faith and any past practices or past agreements between the parties prior to July 1, 2021 - whether oral or written - are null and void, unless specifically preserved in this Agreement.

This Agreement supersedes specific provisions of Department or Division policies with which it conflicts.

During the negotiations of this Agreement, each party had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter appropriate for collective bargaining. Therefore, each party voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right and will not be obligated to bargain collectively, during the term of this Agreement, with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement. Nothing herein will be construed as a waiver of the Union's collective bargaining rights with respect to matters that are mandatory subjects under the law.

Article XXV SAVINGS CLAUSE

If the Nevada Legislature, the Nevada Employee-Management Relations Board, or any court of competent jurisdiction finds or makes any Article, Section, Subsection, or portion of this Agreement to be unlawful or invalid, the remainder of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect. If such a finding is made, a substitute for the unlawful or invalid Article, Section, Subsection, or portion will be negotiated at the request of either party. Negotiations will begin within thirty (30) calendar days of the request.

Article XXVI INDEMNIFICATION

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Employer from all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability that arise against the Employer for any and all issues related to any Union activity that is not a representational duty including, but not limited to, disbursement of Union materials or communications, Union training, Union executive board meetings, and Union conferences, if any.

Article XXVII NON-APPROPRIATIONS CLAUSE

Any provision of this Agreement which requires the Legislature to appropriate money is effective only to the extent of legislative appropriation.

Article XXVIII DISTRIBUTION OF AGREEMENT

The Employer will provide all employees with a link to the Agreement. All employees will be authorized access to the Agreement link. Each employee may print and staple or clip one (1) copy of the Agreement from the link on work time using State-purchased paper and State-owned equipment.

If the Union and the Employer determine it is necessary to print this Agreement, including Braille and large-print copies, they will make mutual agreement to do so.

Article XXIX TERM OF AGREEMENT

All provisions of this Agreement will become effective July 1, 2021 and will remain in full force and effect through June 30, 2023; however, if this Agreement expires while negotiations between the Union and the Employer are underway for a successor Agreement, the terms and conditions of the Agreement will remain in effect until such time as a new Agreement is approved by the Board of Examiners and, if appropriate, the Nevada Legislature.
