- 9.2 When the Employer determines that an Overtime-eligible position is Overtime-exempt, the employee will be noticed in writing of the determination. The notice will include an attached United States Department of Labor (US DOL) fact sheet of the FLSA guidelines. This Article outlines the Employer's general administration of hours of work and shall not be construed as an exhaustive representation of the Employer's policies and procedures regarding hours of work for employees. Department/Division-specific policies and procedures should be consulted when employees need detailed information.

9.3 WORK SCHEDULES

- 9.3.1 The official workweek for the purposes of payroll begins on Monday at 0001 hours and ends at 2359 hours on the following Sunday.

- 9.3.2 Work schedules for employees covered under this Agreement may consist of one of the following combinations of daily work hours, meal breaks, and rest periods during a workweek:

Correctional facilities may, at the discretion of the Warden, or designee, implement a twelve (12) hour staffing model for either twenty-four (24) hour posts or any other posts within the facility. This staffing model contemplates seven (7), twelve (12) hour shifts per pay period, totaling eighty (80) hours of regular time and four (4) hours of overtime. The four (4) hours of overtime does not contribute to any mandatory overtime assignment for the purposes of movement on the mandatory overtime roster.
 - 9.3.2.7 If any leave is used during the pay period by an employee assigned a twelve (12) hour shift, the first four (4) hours of any leave used (Annual Leave, Sick Leave, Compensatory Time) will not be reported as overtime, but rather will be deducted from the full period of leave taken by the employee during the pay period. For example, on the first day of leave usage, the employee will report eight (8) hours of Sick Leave for calling in sick instead of twelve (12) hours.

9.4 ALTERNATE WORK SCHEDULES

- 9.4.1 Alternate workweeks and work shifts of different numbers of hours may be established for Overtime-eligible employees by the Employer in order to meet staffing, security, and safety needs, as long as the alternate work schedules meet Federal and State laws. Such schedules will first be assigned on a volunteer basis. If there are not enough volunteers to fill required schedule slots, then employees shall be selected based on reverse seniority for the alternate work schedules, subject to the Department's/Division's assessment of safety and security requirements, appropriate skills, training, and business and operational needs. The Employer shall not unreasonably deny an employee's request for an alternate work schedule.

9.4.2 The Employer may disapprove requests if there are documented performance issues to include attendance issues. Previously approved alternate work schedules may be rescinded by the Employer if staffing, security, and safety needs are no longer being met.

9.5 TEMPORARY SCHEDULE CHANGES

9.5.1 An employee's workweek and/or work schedule may be temporarily changed with prior notice from the Employer. A temporary schedule change is defined as a change lasting thirty (30) calendar days or less. An employee will receive fourteen (14) calendar days' written notice of any temporary schedule change, absent exigent circumstances. The day that notice is given is considered the first day of notice. Employees will be chosen for temporary schedule changes based on skills and abilities to perform the duties required by the Employer.

9.5.2 Temporary schedule changes will be assigned based on a most senior volunteer basis first, then by using a least senior non volunteer process if necessary.

9.6 PERMANENT SCHEDULE CHANGES

9.6.1 An employee's workweek and work schedule may be permanently changed with prior notice from the Employer. An employee will receive fourteen (14) calendar days' written notice of a permanent schedule change, which will include the reason for the schedule change. The day notice is given is considered the first day of notice. Employees will be chosen for permanent schedule changes based on skills and abilities to perform the duties required by the Employer. Permanent schedule changes may be assigned based on a most senior volunteer basis first, then by using a least senior non volunteer process if necessary.

9.6.2 Voluntary adjustments in the hours of work of daily work shifts during a workweek do not constitute a permanent schedule change.

9.7 EMERGENCY SCHEDULE CHANGES

9.9 MANDATORY OVERTIME

- 9.9.1 The Appointing Authority will maintain a mandatory overtime roster at each institution and this roster will be available for Officers to review at any time.
- 9.9.2 The Appointing Authority will maintain a list of Officers that volunteer to be in Standby Status for each institution and this Standby Status will be available for Officers to review at any time. The number of Officers needed for the Standby Status list will be appropriately determined by each institution based on the size of the institution and the operational need. The Standby Status list will be administered in the same rotational manner as the voluntary overtime roster.
- 9.9.3 When an institution requires additional staffing, the on-duty supervisor will ask Officers already on duty for volunteers for an overtime assignment. An Officer who volunteers to work an overtime assignment will be moved to the bottom of the mandatory overtime roster.
- 9.9.4 If there are no volunteers, the on-duty supervisor will then call Officers on the Standby Status list. Officers on the Standby Status list must answer their phones when called or return any voicemail message left by the on-duty supervisor within thirty (30) minutes. Failure to do so may result in progressive disciplinary action. Officers who are on the Standby Status list who refuse to report on duty when called may be subject to progressive disciplinary action.
- 9.9.5 If an Officer is required to work a mandatory overtime assignment due to their position on the mandatory overtime roster, they will be notified of such requirement as soon as practicable, but no later than four (4) hours in advance of the shift to be worked. If the Officer works the overtime assignment, they will be moved to the bottom of the mandatory overtime roster. Officers will not be told they are “mandated” unless they are actually required to work overtime. If the Officer is told they are “mandated” or required to work overtime, they will be moved to the bottom of the mandatory overtime roster.
- 9.9.6 In the event an Officer is relieved from their post fifteen (15) minutes late or more, the Officer will be compensated with overtime pay or compensatory time until their post relief arrives. An Officer that is relieved from their post late will be moved to the bottom of the mandatory overtime roster.
- 9.9.7 Overtime assignments and late relief are not considered to be inclusive of an Officer’s muster pay.

9.10 SHIFT BID PROCESSES

- 9.10.1 The shift bid process will be governed by the most recent version of the Department/Division shift bid regulation at the time the CBA is agreed upon, inclusive of any specific shift bid language agreed upon by the parties outside of the regulation. This will include any exceptions noted below. If there is a conflict with the regulation and the CBA, the CBA will be the highest authority.
- 9.10.2 Facilities, including camps, that have fifteen (15) or more bargaining unit members assigned will hold an annual shift bid.

9.11 POST BID

9.11.1 Application of Seniority

- 9.11.1.1 Employees in Departments/Divisions that have bid procedures will bid according to a seniority list established in accordance with this Agreement. Employees shall be entitled to bid on post assignment, provided they possess the skills and abilities to perform the duties on their selected post assignment and shift required by the Employer.
- 9.11.1.2 The Employer has the right to reassign employees to post assignments as required due to operational need and cross-training.
- 9.11.1.3 If a post assignment is eliminated, employees will be reassigned temporarily until such time as the Department/Division holds a continual bid process.
- 9.11.1.4 Correctional Officer Trainee, Correctional Officer, and Senior Correctional Officer will utilize the definition of seniority established in this Agreement for purposes of shift bid and Annual Leave bid.
- 9.11.1.5 Where two (2) or more employees have the same seniority dates for determining job rights, then seniority shall be based on the highest number of the last four digits of the employees' social security numbers with the highest number being 9999 and the lowest number 0000.
- 9.11.1.6 The number of posts that may be identified or approved as Warden exempt or excluded full-time equivalent positions should be kept to the minimum necessary and should not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the total number of positions in use. If more than fifteen percent (15%) of the total number of positions in use is requested by the Warden and supported by the Director, the Director will review and consider for final approval, however, the final approval should not exceed fifteen percent (15%).

9.12 SHIFT BID

9.12.1 Application of Seniority

- 9.12.1.1 Employees shall be entitled to bid based on the definition of seniority established in this Agreement on shifts (including days off), provided they possess the skills and abilities to perform the duties on their selected post assignment and shift required by the Employer.
- 9.12.1.2 The Employer has the right to reassign employees to post assignments as required due to operational need and cross-training.
- 9.12.1.3 Employees with more seniority may make such selections over employees with less seniority. If such selection process results in less than a minimal number of employees possessing the required skills and abilities being available to work on any particular shift or post assignment, such minimal number shall be selected from among employees possessing the required skills and abilities by reverse seniority.

9.13 SHIFT TRADES

- 9.13.1 Qualified employees in the same work area may mutually agree to trade a shift within the established schedule as long as no Overtime is created. 11.12 OVERTIME

- 11.12.1 The Employer shall compensate Overtime-eligible employees at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times their regular hourly rate of pay, including any pay differential, for hours worked in excess of their regularly designated workday or workweek if they are on a variable or innovative schedule agreement.
- 11.12.2 Overtime will be administered in accordance with NRS and NAC 284.
- 11.12.3 For purposes of this Article, "hours worked" includes all hours in a pay status.
- 11.12.4 The Employer shall have the right to require employees to work Overtime consistent with this Agreement.
- 11.12.5 A list of Officers who volunteer for overtime assignments will be maintained at each institution. When an Overtime assignment is required, the Employer will consult the voluntary list to staff that assignment. An Officer that works an overtime assignment at a different institution will code their timecard with the specific coding for that institution for the overtime hours worked.

- 11.12.7 If there are no volunteers available, the Employer will designate employees who are capable and qualified to perform the work based on a reverse seniority, mandatory Overtime roster. Mandatory Overtime assignments shall be rotated in accordance with this Agreement.

11.14 SPECIAL ADJUSTMENTS TO PAY

- 11.14.1 Employees may be assigned to perform duties allowing eligibility for additional compensation categories under Special Adjustments; however, the maximum Special Adjustment to Pay and/or Special Assignment pay is ten percent (10%) of their regular hourly rate of pay. Special Assignments are designations outside normal operational functions that save the Employer time and money by having an employee on-site perform the task instead of outsourcing. These tasks require the employee to be removed from their normal duties in order to perform the tasks and may require specialized training. The specialized training will typically require an employee to attend training classes or be certified to perform the duties of that designation. The designation may also require the employee to be recertified after a specified timeframe to maintain that specialized assignment designation. Any expenses incurred related to this training or certification will be paid by the Employer.

11.14.2 Acting Pay

- 11.14.2.1 An employee who is temporarily assigned and approved by the Employer to assume the daily responsibilities of an authorized position in a higher classification will be paid a Special Adjustment to Pay (Acting Pay) in accordance with the following:

 - 11.14.2.1.2 If the assignment is for more than sixteen (16) working days within a thirty (30)-day period, the employee will be paid a Special Adjustment to Pay (Acting Pay) equal to five percent (5%) for one salary grade higher and ten percent (10%) for two or more salary grades higher than their regular hourly rate of pay in addition to their regular hourly rate of pay for the hours in approved “acting” status.

11.14.2.2 The start of the consecutive working days will occur based on the first day the employee is actually working and has assumed the “acting” operational responsibilities.

11.14.2.3 Employees in a class series will only be authorized to be temporarily assigned to an acting position that is the immediate classification above their current classification, unless the number of personnel in the unit or division restricts this ability and it is mutually agreed to by the Employer and the Union.

11.14.4.1 An employee assigned to be an FTO shall receive additional compensation equivalent to five percent (5%) of their regular hourly rate of pay for a Special Adjustment to Pay (FTO Pay) for the hours spent in FTO status. FTO Pay is excluded from the ten percent (10%) stacking limitation.

11.14.5 Muster Pay Adjustment

11.14.5.1 Employees will receive forty-five (45) minutes of Overtime which can be taken for pay or Compensatory Time, for every day that they work regardless of their post or work assignment. This is to account for the time from the entry to the area where they receive their assignment and any information needed for their workday. This will also account for the time that it takes to get to their post, check out equipment, and receive a work-related pass down. The “muster pay” will also account for the time it takes to give a work-related pass down to the next shift that relieves you from your post. It will also account for the walk from your assigned post to exit the Gatehouse.

11.14.6 Special Assignments

11.14.6.1 An employee that is given a Special Assignment by the Department/Division not specifically detailed in this Article may be entitled to additional pay equivalent of five percent (5%) of their regular hourly rate of pay for a Special Assignment to Pay (Special Assignment) for the hours working in that Special Assignment, rounded up to the nearest whole hour. Duties that constitute Special Assignments will be determined by the Department/Division.

11.14.6.2 Special Assignments may include but are not limited to Armorer and Transportation Staff, Institutional Investigators, Recruiter, Control Officer, Correctional Emergency Response Team (CERT) and/or Security Squad, and Crisis Intervention Training qualified staff (CIT) or Crisis Negotiations Training.

11.14.7 Standby Pay

11.14.8.2 During the contract term of July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2025, the Employer intends to make changes to the regulations surrounding pay for duty locations outside of major metropolitan areas within Nevada. Should the intended regulatory changes not occur by June 30, 2024, the parties agree that no change may constitute a reason to demand mid-contract bargaining over this specific pay item.

11.14.9 Uniforms & Equipment

11.14.9.1 Uniforms

11.14.9.1.1 The Employer will determine and provide uniform items consistent with Department/Division policy. The Employer will determine all uniform pieces and gear that are acceptable.

11.14.9.1.2 Employees covered under this Agreement who are required to purchase uniforms and equipment will receive a Uniform & Equipment Allowance of two thousand twenty dollars ($2,020.00) per fiscal year, payable in two equal installments in September and March on checks separate from their paychecks.

11.14.9.1.3 If an employee's uniform is damaged or destroyed in the line of duty, they are entitled to full reimbursement by the state of Nevada per NRS 289.800.

11.14.9.2 Equipment

11.14.9.2.1 The Employer will determine and provide equipment consistent with Department/Division policy. Employees may choose to purchase additional equipment items that are approved by the Department/Division to be carried on duty.

11.14.9.2.2 Personal Protective Equipment that an employee chooses to use to supplement their Employer provided equipment that is damaged in the course and scope of duty rather than through negligence may be reimbursable. The employee may request that the Employer reimburse them for the cost of that equipment, up to a maximum of four hundred dollars ($400) per incident. Employees may request reimbursement for damaged personal protective equipment to their Department/Division by submitting a report detailing the incident in which the equipment was damaged by the end of the shift in which the damage occurred. The Department/Division must reimburse the Staff member as per NRS 289.

11.14.9.3 Body Armor

11.14.9.3.1 Employees who choose to wear body armor while on duty may do so with approval from the Department/Division. Any body armor chosen to be worn by an employee will comply with any Department/Division policy and will be the employee's responsibility to maintain and replace according to the manufacturer's recommended schedule.

11.14.9.4 Retirement Credentials

11.14.9.4.1 As established by the HR 218 – Law Enforcement Officer Safety Act (LEOSA), upon separation or retirement from the Employer, an employee in good standing with a minimum of ten (10) years of creditable aggregate law enforcement service (State of Nevada or otherwise), will be entitled to receive retirement credentials at no cost to the employee. - 14.8.2 Coaching & Counseling gives supervisors an opportunity to discuss performance elements and standards, expectations, and performance outcomes with their employees in a non-punitive setting; however, Coaching & Counseling documentation may be used to establish a record that an employee has been made aware of their responsibility with regard to a particular set of circumstances.
- 14.8.3 Coaching & Counseling sessions will only be used to assess and review performance with regard to work standards, performance elements, and performance outcomes and to provide support to employees so that skills and abilities can be aligned with work standards.

Performance improvement plans may not be used to circumvent the discipline process.

14.11 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION REVIEW

- 14.11.1 In the event an employee disagrees with an annual performance evaluation, the employee may request a review. Such request must be made in writing, must identify specific points of disagreement, and must be submitted to their immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days of a performance evaluation meeting. A Reviewing Officer will be assigned by the employee's Department/Division to assess the request. If the reviewing Officer is not the Appointing Authority, the Reviewing Officer must submit to the Appointing Authority a recommendation to uphold or modify the report on performance. - 18.3 Under the ADA, employment decisions must be based on an employee's ability to perform the essential functions of their position with or without reasonable accommodation. "Reasonable accommodation" means any change or adjustment to a job or work environment that permits a qualified employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of a job or enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment equal to those enjoyed without disabilities, without creating an undue hardship on the Employer.
- 18.4 An employee who believes that they have a disability and require a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of their position or access the benefits and privileges of employment may request such an accommodation by submitting a request to their Departmental/Divisional Human Resources Office or their Departmental/Divisional ADA Coordinator.
- 18.5 The Departmental/Divisional Human Resources Office or ADA Coordinator will acknowledge receipt of the request for reasonable accommodation and will begin the interactive process as defined in the ADA and the ADAAA with the employee as soon as practicable, but not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the request for accommodation.

- 18.7 If an employee wishes to consult with a Union Steward or representative regarding the ADA interactive process or any documentation related to potential reassignment as a result of any accommodation, they may do so. An employee may request that their Union Steward or representative be present at meetings with an ADA Coordinator. Such request will not be unreasonably denied.
- 18.8 All medical information disclosed to the Employer will be kept confidential.
- 18.9 In the event the Departmental/Divisional Human Resources Office or ADA Coordinator has identified that all possible reasonable accommodation avenues have been exhausted within the Department/Division, as well as Employer-wide, the employee may be separated from service, or if eligible, offered the opportunity to exercise their right to a Disability Retirement with the Public Employees' Retirement System of Nevada (PERS), as outlined in Article 24, Separation.

Sex- or gender-based harassment and discrimination are personally offensive, debilitate morale, and, therefore, interfere with work effectiveness.
- 19.2.3 No employee shall be subjected to unsolicited and unwelcomed sexual overtures or conduct, either verbal, written (including digital media, i.e., email, text or digital photos or graphics), or physical.
- 19.2.4 No employee shall be subjected to physically or verbally harassing behavior—sexual, gendered, or neutral—because of that employee's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or expression.

 - 19.3.3.3.1 Harassing behavior is of a sexual nature; or,
 - 19.3.3.3.2 Harassing behavior is not sexual in nature, but is related to the sex or gender of the alleged victim or others; or,
 - 19.3.3.3.3 Harassing behavior is sex- or gender-neutral in content but occurs because of an individual's sex or gender; or,
 - 19.3.3.3.4 Any combination of the types of behaviors described above.
- 19.3.4 Employees are responsible for cooperating in the investigation of any complaint of alleged sex- or gender-based harassment or discrimination. Employees are additionally responsible for cooperating with the efforts of their Department/Division to prevent and eliminate sex- or gender-based harassment and discrimination and for maintaining a working environment free from such unlawful conduct. Pursuant to NAC 284.650, failure to participate in any investigation of alleged discrimination, including without limitation, an investigation concerning sex- or gender-based harassment is cause for disciplinary action.
- 19.3.5 Federal law prohibits retaliation against employees who bring sex- or gender-based harassment or discrimination charges or assist in investigating such charges. Any employee making sex- or gender-based harassment or discrimination complaints, or that is assisting in the investigation of such a complaint, or that is otherwise engaging in protected activity will not be adversely affected in terms of their conditions of employment, nor discriminated against, disciplined, or discharged because of the complaint or their participation in any investigation.
- 19.3.6 Complaint Process
 - 19.3.6.1 Employees who believe they have been subjected to or witnessed sex- or gender-based harassment or discrimination are encouraged to advise the person believed to have engaged in harassment or discrimination that the conduct is unwelcome, undesirable, or offensive.

An employee or other alleged victim of sex- or gender-based harassment or discrimination may go directly to the NERC or the EEOC if:

19.3.8.1 The alleged harasser is a public Officer as defined in NRS 284.005; or,

19.3.8.2 The employee believes their supervisor, next level authority, an Officer, director, or the Administrator of the Division of Human Resource Management, knew or should have known about the alleged harassment and failed to take appropriate steps.

19.3.9 Failure to report a claim of sex- or gender-based harassment or discrimination internally to the Employer may jeopardize the standing of any legal claim brought by an employee.

In the event that an arbitrator determines that the LCA was violated, the arbitrator shall not be permitted to impose a lower level of progressive discipline and must affirm the termination provided for under the LCA.

- 20.5.4.1.3 If a supervisor meets with an employee to discuss a matter of performance or behavior, the meeting shall be held in a private location.

- 20.6.2 No member of the bargaining unit shall be permitted to conduct any investigation of another member of the bargaining unit. Investigations of members of the bargaining unit will be supervised and conducted by peace officers, with the sole exception of investigations into acts of discrimination and/or other violations of State or Federal civil rights laws which may be conducted by non-peace officers from the DHRM. However, the DHRM investigators shall still be required to comply with all other aspects of the Peace Officer's Bill of Rights as stated in NRS Chapter 289. A peace officer who is the subject of an internal administrative investigation will receive a completed copy of a Notice of Allegations of Misconduct consistent with NRS 289.060 within thirty (30) calendar days of the Appointing Authority, or designee, becoming aware, or reasonably should have become aware, of the conduct that led to the investigation of an allegation against the employee. If the Notice of Allegations of Misconduct is to be served on the employee in person, the employee shall be notified of this prior to such service and shall have the right to have their representative(s) present.

If the employee's chosen representative(s) are unavailable, the interrogation or interview will be rescheduled within a reasonable amount of time to permit the representative(s) to attend and assist the employee.

If the adjudication is “Sustained”, the Appointing Authority shall determine consistent with the just cause standard whether disciplinary action is appropriate, and what level of discipline to impose. In determining the level of discipline to impose, the Appointing Authority, or designee, will consider progressive discipline and the seriousness of the offense.
- 20.7.3 If the Appointing Authority, or designee, elects not to take disciplinary action, or if allegations related to an investigation do not result in disciplinary action, the employee will be provided with a notice that any investigation is complete and that no disciplinary action will be imposed.
- 20.7.4 An internal administrative investigation that could lead to disciplinary action against an employee and any determination made as a result of such an investigation must be completed and the employee notified by way of an HR-41 Specificity of Charges form within one hundred twenty (120) calendar days after the employee is provided notice of the allegations. The Pre-Disciplinary Hearing must not be scheduled on a day which is not a regular working day for the employee. The Pre-Disciplinary Hearing shall be scheduled or re-scheduled as reasonably necessary so as to permit the employee to have their representative(s) present.

- 20.8.1.2 The employee may waive the right to a Pre-Disciplinary Hearing before the proposed action in writing. If the employee makes such a waiver, they may not be suspended, demoted, or dismissed from service before the proposed effective date set forth in the HR-41. The waiver does not waive the employee's right to file a grievance or appeal after the action is taken.
- 20.8.1.3 The Appointing Authority, or designee, will conduct the Pre-Disciplinary Hearing. Any designated representative must be a person with the authority to recommend a final decision to the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority, or designee, will render the final decision.
- 20.8.2 At any time after receiving the HR-41 and before the Pre-Disciplinary Hearing, the employee may inspect any evidence in the possession of the Department/Division and submit a response. The Department/Division must consider any such response before making a recommendation to impose punitive action against the employee.
- 20.8.3 The employee may request Administrative Leave with pay for up to forty (40) hours to prepare for a Pre-Disciplinary Hearing regarding a disciplinary transfer, removal of assignment, suspension, demotion, or dismissal from service.
- 20.8.4 This process is an informal proceeding between the Appointing Authority, or designee, and the employee and their representative(s), who meet together to discuss the proposed disciplinary action. The employee will be given the opportunity to rebut the allegations against them and provide mitigating information. Witnesses are not allowed to attend.
- 20.8.5 The employee may respond both orally and in writing at the Pre-Disciplinary Hearing.
- 20.8.6 The employee must be given a copy of the finding or recommendation, if any, resulting from the Pre-Disciplinary Hearing and notified in writing of the Appointing Authority's, or designee's, decision regarding the proposed action on or before the effective date of the action. The effective date of the action is the first day the disciplinary action takes effect.

20.9 GRIEVANCES OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 20.9.1 An employee may file a grievance relative to disciplinary action under Article 20, Grievance Procedure within fifteen (15) working days, or file an appeal to the Nevada State Human Resources Commission for review by a Hearing Officer within ten (10) working days, in accordance with NRS 284.390.
- 20.9.2 Once an employee has properly filed a grievance under Article 21, Grievance Procedure, or filed an appeal under NRS 284.390, they may not proceed in the alternative manner.

Article 21. Grievance Procedure

- 21.1 The Union and the Employer agree that it is in the best interest of all parties to resolve disputes at the earliest opportunity and at the lowest level. The Union and the Employer encourage problem resolution between employees and management and are committed to assisting in resolution of disputes as soon as possible. In the event a dispute is not resolved in an informal manner, this Article provides a formal process for dispute resolution.
- 21.2 "Grievance" means an act, omission, or occurrence that an employee believes to be an injustice relating to any condition arising out of the relationship between the Employer and an employee, including, but not limited to, compensation, working hours, working conditions, membership in the Union, the administration and interpretation of this Agreement, the applicability of any law, rule, or regulation relating to the employee's employment, imposition of discipline, or other adverse employment actions.
- 21.3 The term "grievance" does not include any dispute for which a hearing and/or remedy is provided by Federal or State law through other administrative processes. For example, there are specific avenues outside of the grievance process to address the following:
 - 21.3.1 Allegations of discrimination or sexual harassment must be reported or otherwise addressed through the process outlined in Article 19, Unlawful Discrimination.
 - 21.3.2 A change in classification or the allocation of positions (NRS 284.165)
 - 21.3.3 Refusal to examine or certify an applicant for an open position (NRS 284.245)
 - 21.3.4 A denial of Catastrophic Leave (NRS 284.3629)1
 - 21.3.5 Reprisal or retaliatory action against a State Officer or employee who discloses improper governmental action (NRS 281.641)
- 21.4 Informal resolution of disputes is encouraged before the parties resort to the formal grievance procedure.
- 21.5 If an employee is within a bargaining unit that has an exclusive representative, the employee has the right to present grievances to the Executive Department at any time and to have those grievances adjusted without the intervention of the exclusive representative if:

21.5.1 The exclusive representative is given an opportunity to be present at any meetings or hearings related to the adjustment of the grievance and provided a copy of the adjustment of the grievance; and,

21.5.2 The adjustment of the grievance is not inconsistent with the provisions of the CBA or any supplemental bargaining agreement then in effect.

21.6 Employees who decline the Union's representation assume full responsibility for their grievance and the Union is relieved of its duty to represent those employees.

21.7 Except in the case of disciplinary actions, grievances must be filed in writing within fifteen (15) working days after the date of the incident giving rise to the alleged grievance or the date the grievant or the Union became aware, or reasonably could have become aware, of the incident giving rise to the alleged grievance. In the case of disciplinary actions, grievances shall be filed in writing within fifteen (15) working days after the effective date of the discipline at the step set forth in Article 20, Discipline.

21.8 FILING AND PROCESSING A GRIEVANCE

21.9.3 Non-Disciplinary Grievances

21.9.3.1 Step 1 - Lieutenant

21.9.3.1.1 Step 1 of the grievance process is the attempt by the grievant and their representative, if any, and the Lieutenant in the grievant's chain of command to resolve the dispute. The Lieutenant will attempt to meet or confer by telephone with the grievant and their representative, if any, and will issue a response in writing within seven (7) working days following receipt of the grievance, absent extenuating circumstances.

The Warden or Division Administrator may designate an Associate Warden or Deputy Division Administrator to respond on their behalf.

21.9.3.4.2 Prior to any arbitration hearing, the parties shall enter into a resolution conference to attempt to reach an agreement as to the solution to the dispute.

21.9.3.4.3 Employees who have chosen non-Union representation under this Article may file a demand for arbitration, but such employee bears the responsibility to share the arbitration costs with the Employer. Prior to any arbitration hearing, the employee will be required to obtain from the arbitrator selected an estimate of one half of the total arbitration expenses and prepay this amount to the arbitrator. Additionally, if the arbitrator requires the services of a court reporter, the employee will be required to obtain an estimate of one-half of the total expenses for the services and prepay this amount to the court reporter. The Union shall be notified of the arbitration and permitted to attend and/or participate to ensure compliance with the collective bargaining agreement.

21.10 DISCIPLINARY GRIEVANCES

21.10.1 All grievances of a suspension, demotion or termination shall be filed at the Step 3- Department Head, or designee level. Grievances of Written Reprimands will be filed at the Step 2 - Warden (or Division Administrator for Forensic Specialists) level. Grievances of discipline or corrective action less than a Written Reprimand will be filed at the Step 1-Lieutenant level. The time limits set forth in the steps for non-disciplinary grievances shall apply to disciplinary grievances.

21.11 ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 21.11.1 In the event that the parties do not otherwise agree to an arbitrator, upon a demand for arbitration being made, either the employee or the Union will request from the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS) a panel of seven (7) arbitrators who are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators, and who are listed with FMCS as being from the Western Region. Each side will alternatively strike names, with the employee or the Union striking first until only one name remains.
- 21.11.2 The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to modify, amend, alter, add to, or subtract from any provision of this Agreement. The expenses of any arbitration, including the arbitrator's fee, costs, expenses, and the cost of the arbitrator's transcript, if any, shall be borne equally by the parties. However, all other expenses incurred by either party in the preparation or presentation of its case are to be borne solely by the party incurring such expenses.
- 21.11.3 When an employee is subpoenaed as a witness on behalf of the grievant in an arbitration case or an appeal under NRS 284.390, they may appear without the loss of pay if they appear during their work time, providing testimony given is related to their job function or involves matters they have witnessed and is relevant to the arbitration case.
- 21.11.4 In all arbitrations brought by an employee without representation by the Union in which the arbitrator issues a reasoned award, the DHRM LRU will provide a copy of the award to the Union.
- 21.11.5 Failure to Meet Timelines
 - 21.11.5.1 Failure by the grievant or their representative, if any, to comply with the timelines in this Article will result in the automatic withdrawal of the grievance with prejudice.

such time shall be limited such that the arbitrator has an opportunity to deliberate and reach a decision that day. There shall be no post hearing briefs and, and the arbitrator will announce his award orally that day. Thereafter, the award will be reduced to a brief writing setting forth the reasons by the parties for signature by the arbitrator. Article 22. Union/Management Dispute Resolution

- 22.1 It is the intent of this Article to provide a process by which the Union and the Employer communicate, make formal requests, or resolve any disputes as to the application or interpretation of this Agreement.

22.2 THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

The State of Nevada, also referred to as the “Employer,” has designated the Division of Human Resource Management, Labor Relations Unit (DHRM LRU or LRU) as its representative concerning all collective bargaining matters with all certified units on behalf of the Executive Department. Therefore, the LRU is the only State entity with the authority to engage on collective bargaining matters on behalf of the Executive Department under NRS 288. As the certified units span multiple State Departments/Divisions, no single State Department/Division has this authority absent the involvement and approval of the LRU.

22.3 THE UNION

22.3.1 Unit I has designated the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), Nevada C.O., Lodge 21, as their exclusive representative concerning all collective bargaining matters on its behalf. Therefore, unless otherwise ordered by the Nevada Employee Management Relations Board (EMRB), the Union is the only entity with the authority to act as the agent and exclusive representative on collective bargaining matters on behalf of Bargaining Unit I under NRS 288.

22.4 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

22.4.1 The Employer and the Union agree that communication related to any rights or remedies under NRS 288 shall be presented in writing to the LRU at laborrelations@admin.nv.gov or to FOP, at lunkwitzfop21@yahoo.com, respectively.

22.4.2 The Employer and the Union agree that the Union is not precluded from communicating directly with State Departments/Divisions to foster and support Union/Management relations or to discuss issues that arise. However, communications with a single Department/Division are not formal collective bargaining communications under NRS 288.

22.5 UNION GRIEVANCES

22.5.1 The Employer and the Union agree that resolving disputes as quickly as possible and at the lowest level is beneficial to both parties. The Employer and the Union agree to provide notice and meet or confer with one another in an attempt to resolve issues raised regarding the application or interpretation of this Agreement prior to filing formal complaints with a judicial body, such as the EMRB or a Court.

22.5.2 In the event the Union has a dispute with the Employer regarding the application or interpretation of provision(s) of this Agreement, they may file a grievance with the LRU. In the event that the issue cannot be resolved between the LRU and the Union, the Union will use the Grievance Procedure of this Agreement, beginning at Step 4. Such grievance should also be copied to the Department/Division within which the Union has identified their grievance, if any.

22.6 SUCCESSOR CLAUSE

22.6.1 Union Grievance(s) filed during the term of this Agreement will be processed to completion in accordance with the provisions during the same term of this Agreement.

23.2.7 Former permanent employees may be offered a reemployment position in a lower class and pay grade as that held at the time of their separation, provided they have made application for said position and they meet the minimum qualifications.

25.2 DEPARTMENT OR DIVISION-LEVEL COMMITTEES

25.2.1 Department or Division-level Statewide Union/Management Communication Committees will be established to discuss and exchange Department/Division-specific information of a group nature and general interest to both parties.

25.2.2 The discussion and exchange of information pertaining to a local or Department/Division matter will be addressed to the lowest level Committee. In the event there is not a Committee below the Department/Division level, such matters will be addressed at the Department/Division level.

25.3 AD HOC COMMITTEES

25.3.1 Committees to address specific issues may be established by mutual agreement at a Department/Division level Committee.

26.1.1 Employees have the right to become a member of the Union.

26.2 RIGHT TO UNION REPRESENTATION

26.2.1 Employees have the right to Union representation on matters adversely affecting their conditions of employment. An employee shall have a reasonable time frame to arrange for Union representation. Union representation can include a representative attending via video conference or over the telephone.

26.2.2 The right to Union representation will not apply to discussions with an employee in the normal course of duty, such as giving instructions, assigning work, informal discussions, delivery of paperwork, staff or work unit meetings, or other routine communications with an employee.
